Components:

Safety Note: As this grill is made of metal, it can become very hot. To avoid accidents, ensure you do not touch the main body of the grill until it has sufficiently cooled.

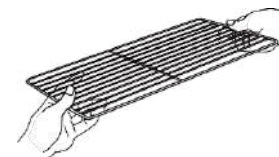

Assembly and Use

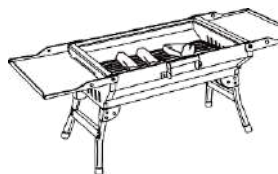

1.Start with the grill body: Position it correctly and attach the food bracket.

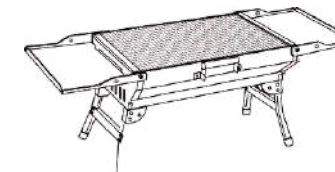

2.Handles: Attach the carrying handles on both sides of the grill body. Flip out the cutting board.

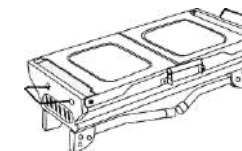

3.Mesh placement: Carefully position the grill mesh over the grill body.

4.Water & Carbon tray: Insert this beneath the mesh to collect drippings and prevent flare-ups.

5.Grilling: Once assembled, place your food on the mesh and begin grilling.

6.Post-use: After grilling, allow the grill to cool down before folding and storing.
