Safety Precautions

- 1. Avoid Enclosed Spaces: Never use the grill in enclosed areas to prevent fire hazards.
- 2. Stable Surface: Place the grill on a flat, horizontal, hard, non-flammable surface. Keep it away from flammable materials like branches, wooden fences, and fuels.
- 3. Fuel Type: Only use charcoal or charcoal briquettes for grilling.
- 4. Fuel Tray Limit: Do not overfill the fuel tray. The maximum fuel quantity is 3/1 of the tray's capacity to prevent overflow.

- 5. Pre-heating: Heat the grill for at least 30 minutes with glowing fuel before placing food on the grate.
- 6. Food Weight Limit: Do not exceed 1.0 kg of food on the grate. Ensure food is evenly distributed across the grill.
- 7. Grill Movement: Never move the grill when it's lit to avoid burns or fire.
- 8. Supervision: Never leave a lit grill unattended. Keep children and pets at a safe distance. Only sober adults should operate the grill.
- 9. Protective Gear: Always handle the grill with gloves to avoid burns or injury from sharp parts.
- 10. Grill Cleanliness: Prevent excessive food, fat, or oil residues from accumulating on the grate as they can cause fire hazards.
- 11. No Water: Do not use water to extinguish the grill. Use sand for safer cooling.
- 12. Cool Before Handling: Ensure the grill is fully cool before removing ashes or finishing the operation to avoid burns or fire hazards.
- 13. Protect the grill from moisture and exposure to weather conditions.
- 14. Once the grill has completely cooled, cover it with an appropriate protective cover.

Assembly Preparation

- 1. Read the assembly instructions thoroughly and follow the steps in the given order.
- 2. Allocate sufficient time for assembling the grill.
- 3. Set up a workspace of at least 2 m².
- 4. Unbox the parts and verify their completeness before starting assembly.
- 5. The grill can be assembled independently.
- 6. Ensure the grill is placed on a stable surface.

Assembly Instructions

- 1. Check Completeness: Ensure all parts are included before starting assembly.
- 2. Set Up Grill Legs: Unfold the grill legs, making sure they are stable and securely in place.
- 3. Place the Grate: Remove the grate from the grill.
- 4. Add Charcoal: Position charcoal on the charcoal tray.
- 5. Reattach Grill Grate: Secure the grill grate on top of the grill. Confirm the grill is stable and all components are properly assembled before starting the barbecue.
- 6. Clean Ash: When ready to clean, pull out the charcoal tray.
